Dedication

Dear Mr. Fender,

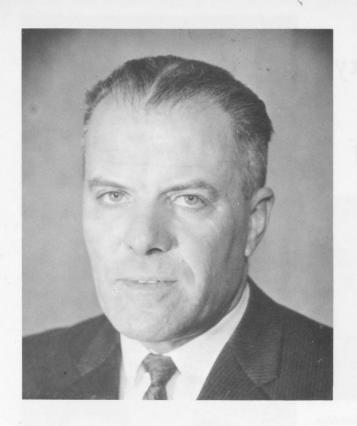

You are a man loved and respected by each one of us. We appreciate your gentle manner as Dean of Bible school men and would like to thank you for your guidance and assistance as our counsellor and friend.

We admire the dedication you show in your position as Director of Admissions. But best of all we love you because in you we can see Jesus Christ lived out. We know that daily you walk with Him, and trust that God will continue to use your life as a testimony to Himself on this campus.

We, the student body of 1966, are honored to dedicate our yearbook to you.

In Christian love, The Student Body.

Board of Directors

It would seem, in the days in which we live, that the turning from the truth as prophesied in 11 Tim. 4:4 is upon us, and it is well to remember that God is still on the throne and is able to move in the hearts of men and nations. The most important consideration for each of God's people in regard to this is that they fit into His program as He leads, and to be so found is the sincere desire of this board.

President's Message

"But we have this treasure in earthen vessels that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us." 11 Cor. 4:7

We as ministers of the gospel are weak and frail creatures, and being mortal are soon broken in pieces. It is in this state that God's power can best be exhibited in and through us. Only as we empty our lives of sin and self, to be filled with God's fulness, can we be useful vessels. Many students have become vessels fit for the Master's use through the study of His Word, personal communion with Him, and enriching times of Christian fellowship with fellow students and staff members.

We also find that the environmental conditions at school serve as the grindstone upon which many "rough edges" in our lives are shaped into His pattern for us, His children.

Christ's teaching in Jn 15:16, "Ye have not chosen me but I have chosen you and ordained you that you should go and bring forth fruit", has caused many to realize this call of God upon their lives, and are obeying this call through the practical work outreach.

Being thus moulded and prepared, let us fulfil our responsibility to God.

Oh to be but emptier, lowlier, Mean, unnoticed and unknown, And to God a vessel holier, Filled with Christ, and Christ alone.

Naught of earth to cloud the glory, Naught of self the light to dim, Telling forth His wondrous story, Emptied to be filled with Him.

So now you have your diploma. Or at least graduation is one year closer. But do you know where God wants you to serve Him? Are you appointed, — or just prepared?

Africa has many wide-open doors. There are countless opportunities for dedicated Christians with preparation like yours.

The SIM welcomes your inquiries. We will be happy to pray with you and counsel you concerning missionary service in Africa. Write us and ask for our free booklet Who Should Go?.

Who pulls the strings at the Co-op?

ANSWER: You do, if you're a member. But you pull only one string. And nobody else can pull more than one!

Which makes every co-op member just as important as every other one on election day--when members get together to decide what's what and who's who.

You see, unlike other privately-owned corporations, only the members have anything to say about the way a co-operative is run. Ownership and control of a co-operative are based purely on patronage and use, not on the size of an individual member's investment in stock.

The only people who gain anything from a Co-op are those who use it--the people for whom and by whom it was built!
